Tips & Suggestions

Scripture coloring is even more useful when combined with a deeper Bible study practice. I recommend incorporating techniques such as verse mapping, Bible journaling, or Scripture writing, to help you understand each verse on a deeper level.

Coloring time can also be a great opportunity to pray and ponder the meaning of the Scripture, and ask God to show you how to live out His Word in your everyday life. Don't forget to talk to God during your coloring session!

Choose smooth, quality paper for the best coloring experience. Copy paper will work in a pinch, but a good inkjet or laser paper will be better. Look for paper with a smooth, bright white finish. When you get ready to print your coloring page, feel free to omit pages #1 and #2 of this document, as they're only here for your information. (The coloring page is page #3).

ABOUT THE SYMBOLISM

At first glance, this coloring page might seem like just a bunch of flowers with a cross at the top, but there is more to it than that!

The cross at the top of course represents Jesus, and the heart is “those who love Him”. The lines of the hexagons intersect with the heart and cross in a way that is unexpected, and yet perfectly lined up. Much like the sometimes unexpected ways that God works all things for the good of those who love Him!

As with many of my coloring pages, the flowers symbolize growth and new life in Christ.

I originally planned for the cross to be entirely contained within the heart, but that just didn't look right... and as I experimented with the size of the cross, I realized that it lined up beautifully with the hexagonal lines...

...This is reminiscent of how God lines up the details of our lives: We can plan all we want, but God's plan will prevail (see Proverbs 16:9). And many times, the story of our lives is not what we expected, but God orchestrates the details in ways that only He can!

And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.
